

Time: 1 1/2hrs

Maximum marks: 35

Section A

Answer any two of the following;

10 x 2= 20

1. What is social work? How do you differentiate between professional social work and social work in general sense?
2. Is social work a profession? Outline the basic elements and justify the significance of these elements
3. Describe various methods of social work and highlight the inter-connection between them

Section B

Answer any one of the following

15 x 1=15

4. "Humanism beliefs and principles are considered as foundation for social work profession" Place your arguments with examples
5. "Existing governing systems & structures operating in India are complementary and contradictory", examine the impact of the same on common people