

For basic rights

Students of St Joseph's College and other groups organised a protest at Freedom Park on Monday in the wake of rising cases of violence against women

