Public strike against privatisation

Thousands gathered at Freedom Park, Bengaluru on Monday and Tuesday, as a part of the nationwide protest against the centre's policies for privatisation. Workers from trade unions and employees from various sectors including from that of banking, farming and Anganwadi participated in the two-day protest. The protesters raised numerous demands including the scrapping of four labour codes and revising the pension amount which has not been revised for many years. The protest was unified under the slogan, 'Save People, Save India'.
